AUCKLAND MEMORIAL PARK & CEMETERY

Questions and Answers

Is the Park New Zealand owned and operated?

Yes. The Park is owned by a Trust and managed by Auckland Memorial Park & Cemetery Ltd. The Trust owns the freehold of the land, which has no mortgages. The managing company oversees day to day operations and is responsible for the cost of all developments on the land.

Who are the Directors?

The directors, all NZ residents and successful businessmen, are Nigel Powell, Gerome Powell, Jackie Or and David Appleby.

How long do I own the plot for?

Burial plots are owned in perpetuity, which means that the Trust or the Managers can never resell your plot.

What is the Perpetual Maintenance Fund?

A one off levy of 10% of the plot price, is charged at the time of purchase, and goes into a Perpetual Maintenance Trust. This Trust will be used to maintain Auckland Memorial Park & Cemetery and its burial plots forever. This fund is only for the maintenance of the Park, all development costs are borne by AMP&CL.

Can I pre-purchase an ash and/or conventional burial plot?

Yes

Can I transfer/sell the plot to someone else if my needs change?

Yes

Is the Cemetery for all cultures and denominations?

Yes. The diversity of New Zealand's cultural and religious beliefs is respected. Whatever your ethnicity or faith, you can find a place to call your own in the Park, with a burial solutions customised to meet your wishes.

Is the cost of a pre-purchased burial plot exempt from asset testing?

Yes. Pre-paid funerals and related products, up to $10,000, are excluded from asset testing. This includes the cost of a plot and memorial.

Is my investment regarded as an asset by the Income Support Department and will it affect my pension entitlement?

No.
