QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Is the Park New Zealand owned and operated?
Yes. The Park is New Zealand owned and operated through a Trust, with day-to-day management by Auckland Memorial Park & Cemetery Ltd. The land is owned freehold by the Trust, with no mortgages, while all development costs are funded by the management company.

Who are the Directors?
The directors are New Zealand residents and experienced business professionals:
Nigel Powell, Jackie Or, and David Appleby.

How long do I own the plot for?
Burial plots are owned in perpetuity, giving you and your family the assurance that your plot can never be resold.

What is the Perpetual Maintenance Fund?
A one-off levy of 10% of the plot purchase price contributes to the Perpetual Maintenance Trust. This fund is dedicated solely to the ongoing care and maintenance of the Park and its burial areas for generations to come. All development costs are separately funded by AMP&C Ltd.

Can I pre-purchase an ash and/or burial plot?
Yes, both ash interment and traditional burial plots can be pre-purchased.

Can I transfer or sell my plot if my circumstances change?
Yes. Should your needs change in the future, plots may be transferred or sold.

Is the Cemetery open to all cultures and denominations?
Yes. We warmly welcome people of all cultures, faiths, and backgrounds. We are committed to respecting the diverse traditions and beliefs of New Zealand families and can help provide burial options that reflect your wishes.

Is the cost of a pre-purchased burial plot exempt from asset testing?
Yes. Pre-paid funerals and related products, up to $10,000, are generally excluded from asset testing. This can include the cost of a plot and memorial.
